Covid-19 Crisis Support

Companies, organisations, and governments across the world are struggling to manage their responses to the biggest health and economic crisis of the century. Access Partnership can help.

ENSURE YOUR OPERATIONS CONTINUE TO MOVE

We support clients maintain their operations:

- rapid situational analysis – like identifying if business and supply chain partners are essential;
- strategic response and outreach to stakeholders – like speaking with governments to get critical factory personnel across borders or activating networks to hasten and improve policy actions.

DEVELOP A STRATEGIC POSITION FOR BUSINESS LONGEVITY

We assist clients identify and implement the best strategic actions to help alleviate the crisis, including both short-term support in key markets, longer-term positioning on policy, and accompanying messages.

ENCOURAGE GOVERNMENTS TO DEVELOP FAVORABLE POLICIES

We help clients productively engage governments through remote bilateral meetings, online forums, and direct correspondence across our deep network of regulators and policymakers.

GET CRITICAL INFORMATION AT YOUR FINGERTIPS

We track information to help our clients remain abreast of critical developments, like movement control policies, government stimulus programs, peer/competitor actions, and tech rollouts like contact tracing applications.
